

CAME ACQUIRES PORTUGUESE COMPANY MOTORLINE

Dosson di Casier (TV), 11 July 2024 – In June, CAME S.p.A., a Made in Italy company that is a world leader in integrated solutions designed for the automation, control, and security of residential, public, and business environments, finalised the acquisition of the Portuguese company Motorline, which develops and manufactures a wide range of automation systems for homes, industries and vehicle control.

Motorline, with a turnover of around EUR 30 million, has been in the market for 38 years and counts on a network of 1,600 partners worldwide. This transaction aims to further strengthen CAME's position in the automation sector by expanding its product portfolio and business opportunities.

"With the acquisition of Motorline," comments Andrea Menuzzo, Chairman & CEO, "CAME is sending out an important signal of growth and consolidation in the automations business. The Group's policy of growth by external lines has always been oriented towards enhancing the acquired brands and their potential, making available the technological know-how and organisation of a Group present throughout the world with a business model strongly focused on internationalisation".
